MASQUERADES

Directed by Lyes Salem

In a small village somewhere in Algeria, Mounir a small-time gardener is frustrated and ashamed of his status as the laughingstock in his community. When he finds out that people were mocking his narcoleptic sister, Rym, once again, he storms out in a drunken rage and exclaims that Rym is in fact engaged to be married to a European business mogul. He soon becomes the center of desire and jealousy. With the lie out in the open, the family is forced to continue this farce to retain their newfound attention and praise. Without realizing it, Mounir will change the destiny of his family and of his community.

HIMALAYA, WHERE THE WIND DWELLS

Directed by Jeon Sooil

Choi arrives in Jharkot, Nepal. In his arms, he has an urn that contains ashes of a Nepalese factory worker Dorje, who was killed in an accident. The bereaved family awaits the arrival of the urn. Finding it more difficult than he thought, Choi decides to stay with the family. Every time the wind blows, prayer wheels around the town chant desolate and lonesome hymns with a rattling noise. It feels like the end of the world and there is nobody to talk with. Staring at Dorje's wife or a snowfield on the high land, Choi desires peace of mind, but the wind only shakes the town without an answer. Director Jeon Sooil casts every character except Choi (performed by Choi Min-sik OLD BOY) with local Nepalese.
