WORLD PREMIERE - DISCOVERY

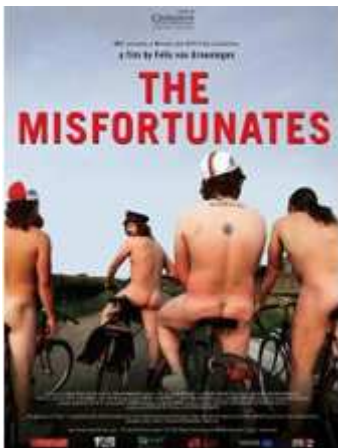

THE DAY GOD WALKED AWAY a film by Philippe Van Leeuw

Rwanda, 1994, at the outbreak of the genocide. Jacqueline, a young Tutsi woman, is a maid in a Belgian family. When she finds her children brutally murdered by the Hutus, she runs away and hides in the woods. There, she meets a man who has also escaped from the slaughter. Together, they will try to survive with the fear of being discovered at any moment. Terror and madness wait for them at every turn.

France - Drama - 2009 - 90' - French

VANGUARD

THE MISFORTUNATES a film by Felix van Groeningen

"A bawdy, heartfelt glimpse into a proudly dysfunctional Belgian family." (The Hollywood Reporter)

"Another ravishing-looking tale of the ordinary lives of extraordinary Belgians" (Variety)

Belgium - Comedy - 2009 - 108' - Flemish

REEL TO REAL

Henri Georges-Clouzot's INFERNO a film by Serge Bromberg & Ruxandra Medrea

"Built around some fascinating, never-seen footage of tests and scenes shot before the picture shuttered three weeks into production, Serge Bromberg's and Ruxandra Medrea's enterprising documentary was a highlight of this year's Cannes Classics sidebar..." (Variety)

"The color and black-and-white studio tests Clouzot did with his stunning 26-year-old star, Romy Schneider, are amazing; hallucinatory and trippy in a disciplined, pre-psychedelic way" (Variety)

France - Documentary - 2009 - 94' - French
